

The Opener That Wasn't

Weekend Proves No Different Than Any Other to Boat Camp Owners

HEBER CITY—(May 27)-The lack of a general opening day for fishing season this year drew mixed reviews from boat camps operators and fishermen.

Colleen Snow, of Snow's Marina, said that the weekend's activity was really no different than other years. "The place is filled up and the fishing has been great. As a matter of fact people who don't generally catch many fish have done well."

It was a slightly different story up the road at Beck's Island Boat Camp. Employees there noted that, while their campground was full, there hasn't been the activity they have seen other years when fishermen have lined up at the gate waiting to get in.

What was apparent though was the fact that people like to get outdoors when they have the time. Regardless of the reason, campgrounds around the reservoir were full and more than the usual amount of anglers lined the banks.

to stay with its former position of ride buses on a seat-available basis. This night, May 23, the Wasatch Co. School District brought about the need for such a committee and the planning began.

Karen Pitts, Head Drill Mother of the Wasatch Drill Team, has been elected to the Wasatch Drill Team's annual banquet on Wednesday, May 22, at the Wasatch High cafeteria. Members of the past year's team were honored for their activities during the past year. Special recognition was given to the senior girls that would be graduating this year. Plaques were awarded to each girl which outlined events that the drill team has participated in.

Kara Lynne Farr, Drillteam Advisor, displays the Wasatch Drill Team's contributions during the past year as head drill team mother. She was in charge of coordinating the Waspette costumes for the Waspette competition.
